6. Any of the infographic's facts may or may not be deemed surprising by students, depending on their prior knowledge.

Page 13

1. Gina Akpe-Moses.
2. She was born in Nigeria and grew up in Ireland.
3. She is part of a new generation of Ireland people who were born in one country but have lived most of their lives in Ireland.
4. Her parents moved to Ireland to better their work and education prospects.
5. 17.3%.
6. Two and a half.
7. She is currently based in England.
8. Expect students to consider how Gina might feel strongly attached to more than one country; she might have better opportunities in a country where she does not have a strong emotional connection (i.e Nigeria and Ireland are her home countries yet England has more sports funding and facilities).
9. Expect a range of responses from students.
